ASK CONGRESS TO APPROVE BRITISH LOAN

Message Says Credit is Needed to Provide For Expanded Production and Consumption

BENEFITS ARE CITED

Washington, Jan. 30.—(P)—President Truman today asked congress to vote $3,750,000,000 loan to Britain, saying it would lead to expanded "production, consumption and employment and rising standards of living everywhere."

Urging prompt action on the agreement, which also includes an additional credit of $650,000,000 settling lend lease obligations, Mr. Truman said the loan will permit this nation and Britain to "move side by side" toward the goal of expanded world trade.

"Britain needs this credit and she needs it now," the president declared in a special message to the senate and house. "It will enable her to buy from the world the supplies of food and raw materials which are essential to the life and work of the British people. At the same time it will keep open a market for those surpluses of the United States which are customarily exported to the United Kingdom. These are the immediate benefits."

Dems Plan Meeting To Discuss Slate

Harrisburg, Jan. 30.—(P)—State-wide Democratic Leaders, including U. S. Senators Joseph E. Guffey and Francis Myers, will gather here next week to discuss the party's 1946 primary plans and candidates.

J. Warren Mickle, Democratic state chairman, who called the meeting for Thursday, Feb. 7, said it was for the specific purpose of planning for the coming primary but that talk of candidates probably will come up during the conference. That is two days before the first legal day to circulate nominating petitions.

The announcement came after some of the state's Democratic congressmen disclosed in Washington failure of Pennsylvania leaders to agree on candidates has them worried.

Mickle at the same time announced regional meetings will be held Monday, Feb. 11, in Harrisburg for leaders from 16 southern counties to outline primary campaign plans, and in Reading, Feb. 12, for those from eight southeastern counties.

On the state-wide ticket, Guffey is expected to seek renomination for a third term, but no agreement has been reached on any of the other places at stake this year—Governor, lieutenant governor and secretary of internal affairs.

STUDENT INVOLVED IN SLAYING IS INSANE

Pittsburgh, Jan. 30.—(P)—A sanity commission today informed Judge A. Marshall Thompson that William Blader, 18, Pitt student charged with the fatal shooting of Frank Amberson in Schenley Park last October, was insane.

Drs. Edward E. Mayer and R. H. Keifer told the judge that the Brooklyn, N. Y., youth was dangerous because of criminal tendencies. They recommended that he be committed to Fairview State Hospital for the criminally insane.

Judge Thompson said Blader would be committed today or tomorrow.

MAN AND WIFE BURN TO DEATH IN CLARION

Clarion, Jan. 30.—(P)—Dashing back into the blazing home from which they had just escaped, Archie Campman, 30, and his 29-year-old wife, Louise, were burned to death yesterday in Farmington township.

Roused by the fire, the parents had taken their children—Bobby, 10 and Ronald, 8, and Constance, 6—to the family automobile.

The mother ran back into the house to get more clothing for the shivering youngsters. Hearing the wife scream, Campman raced into the house after her.

Army Occupation of Germany To Continue Beyond June 1st

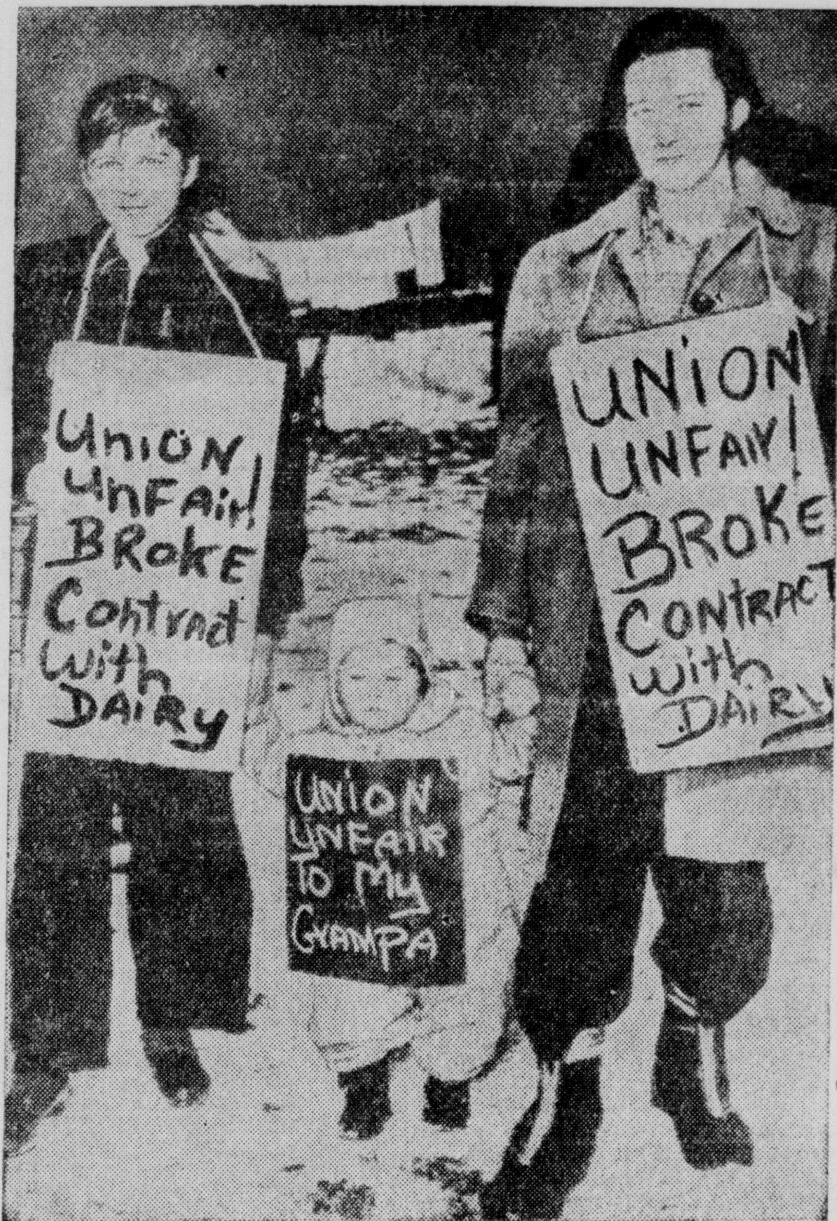

Washington, Jan. 30.—(P)—The dwindling United States army is tagged with sticking to its dual job of occupying and administering the American zone in Germany for many months to come.

This became apparent when Secretary of State Byrnes told a news conference yesterday that the war department had agreed reluctantly to continue army administration in Germany beyond the June 1 deadline set last October by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Byrnes offered no explanation as to why the government had changed its plan to shift over from military to civil administration in the American zone at the earliest possible moment.

But he indicated he had opposed the plan in the first place, be-

New and Far-Reaching Strike Control Bill Gathers Support

Washington, Jan. 30.—(P)—A far-reaching strike control bill was sent to the house floor today by the rules committee.

Debate is scheduled to start tomorrow on the measure, proposed as a substitute for a watered down version of fact-finding legislation approved by the house labor committee.

The committee voted 8 to 3 to clear the bill for consideration as a substitute.

Two days of debate were ordered. The rules group's recommendation controlling procedure for consideration of the legislation is subject to house approval. Chairman Sabath (D-Ill.), one of those who voted against it, said he would ask the house to reject the committee's action.

The bill cleared was introduced yesterday by Rep. Case (R-SD). Containing several restrictive provisions and calling for a national labor-management mediation board, the bill was introduced by Rep. Case (R-SD), with backing from influential members of both parties.

Republican spokesmen told reporters nearly all their members will support the plan. And south Democratic leaders said in interviews that members from their section will back it nearly 100 per cent.

Most opposition came from those usually considered close friends of organized labor. Rep. Marcantonio (AL-NY) termed the measure "a Republican filibuster against labor." He acknowledged, however, that it had wide-spread backing.

Among restrictive sections of the case bill are ones which would: 1. Provide civil liability for unions or employers violating contracts.

2. Deny collective bargaining or reemployment rights to individuals or unions using violence in picketing or organized boycotts to force management to come to terms.

3. Give no status to unions of supervisory employees, such as foremen; and

4. Repeal many of the present anti-injunction laws, by permitting (Turn to Page Seven)

RANK ENFORCES CURFEW

Rankin, Jan. 30.—(P)—Burgess Andrew J. Matiyak today ordered Rankin police to enforce strictly an ordinance keeping boys under 17 and girls under 18 off the streets after 10 p. m. "Some of the kids have been getting into mischief," commented Matiyak. The fire whistle signals the curfew, which has been in effect since November.

MILK PLANT ROBBED

Franklin, Jan. 30.—(P)—Authorities today sought a robber who broke into the Judson Milk plant yesterday, looting the office safe of $6,000.

Late Suspects In Kidnaping Are Released

Chicago, Jan. 30.—(P)—The investigation in the Degnan kidnaping continued today and State's Attorney William J. Tuohy said two youths who he said made telephone calls to the Degnan home had been absolved of any connection with the crime.

Tuohy said that one of the youths, Theodore Campbell, 18, had been released and that the second, Vincent Costello, 18, was being held pending his appearance before a state parole board. Tuohy said Costello had been on parole from the Illinois State Training School.

Chief of Detectives Walter Storms yesterday said the two Chicago boys had told him they telephoned the Degnan home on the morning of Jan. 7, a few hours after the discovery that Suzanne Degnan had been kidnapped.

The youths were the last of more than a score of men who have been interrogated in connection with the kidnaping and "brutal slaying of the Degnan child, who was stolen from the north side home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Degnan, during the early morning hours of Jan. 7. The kidnaping (Turn to Page Seven)

President Jolted By Vote on U.S.E.S.

Washington, Jan. 30.—(P)—A decisive defeat in the house jolted President Truman's hopes today for continued federal control of the United States Employment Service—a top item on his program.

The house rejected the president's proposal by a vote of 233 to 113 yesterday and directed that USES be returned to the states not later than June 30.

The legislation went to the senate which has gone on record in previous unsuccessful measures as favoring restoration of the agency to the states.

The promising outlook for the return legislation set capitol hill speculation on the likelihood of another veto when and if the measure reaches the White House.

SCHOOL BUS IN CRASH

Newport, Jan. 30.—(P)—Two small children and a Newport physician were injured when an automobile and a school bus transporting 15 youths collided near here last night. State police blamed ruts on the highway for the crash.

HESS PLEA TO DEFEND SELF IS REJECTED

International Military Tribunal Denies Application of Former Deputy Fuehrer

ACCUSING DOCUMENT

By JOSEPH E. DYNAN
Nuernberg, Germany, Jan. 30.—(P)—Rudolph Hess' application to be his own defense attorney was denied today by the international military tribunal as "not in his interest."

The court, trying 22 ranking Nazis as war criminals, removed Guntar von Rohrscheidt, who is hospitalized with a broken ankle, as counsel for the former deputy fuhrer and appointed Dr. Otto Stahmer, counsel for Hermann Goerring, also to act for Hess.

Rohrscheidt was injured in an accidental fall last week. The gangling Nazi the same day wrote him a curt note saying he wanted no lawyer, no witnesses and no documents but would conduct his own defense.

It took the judges of the United States, Great Britain, Russia and France a full week to decide Hess' problem.

Charles Dubost, the French prosecutor, introduced a German high command directive instructing commanders of war prisoners camps not to observe the general convention regulation for delay in executions. The convention provides that execution of prisoners cannot be carried out until three months after the protecting power has been notified.

"For war prisoners themselves, it is more humane not to have to wait three months for their execution," the directive said.

Another document showed how the command of the German air force attempted to curtail Allied air attacks by placing war prisoners' camps near large German cities.

Dubost told the court Adolf Hitler himself enunciated the Nazi policy of executing deportees in order to intimidate the populations of subjugated European nations.

Dubost submitted a document he described as a German high command directive instructing German armistice commission to reject all requests from the French delegation or the international Red Cross for better treatment of prisoners.

FORMER BUTLER CO. JUDGE PASSES AWAY

Butler, Jan. 30.—(P)—John Haden Wilson, former congressman and former Butler county judge, died yesterday at his home at the age of 78.

A native of Jackson, Tenn., he became a Pennsylvania school teacher at the age of 18 and was principal of Harmony, Evans City and Chicora schools. He was elected to the 66th congress from Butler and Westmoreland counties, serving one term.

In 1933 he was elected judge of the Butler county court. He was a delegate to the Democratic national conventions in 1916, 1922, 1936 and 1940.

ROOSEVELT BIRTHDAY GIVEN RECOGNITION

Washington, Jan. 30.—(P)—President Truman will speak to the nation by radio tonight as part of the observance of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt's birthday anniversary.

His five-minute address will be broadcast from the White House over all the major networks, sometime between 11:52 and 11:57 p. m. (EST).

The president took note of the observance in other ways, too.

He arranged to buy the first Roosevelt memorial stamp from Postmaster General Robert E. Hannegan and invited to lunch the movie stars who came to the capital for the march of dimes campaign.

BULLETINS

Weymouth, Mass., Jan. 30.—(P)—Search for Mrs. Betty Reader, 25, mother of three children, ended last night with an announcement by Police Chief Edward F. Butler that she had returned home.

Chungking, Jan. 30.—(P)—The deadlock over composition of the national assembly persisted today at a meeting of the subcommittee of the Political Consultation (Unity) Conference handling this question. Both the government and Communists refused to budge from their demands and the meeting broke up without the slightest progress having been made.

Miami, Fla., Jan. 30.—(P)—John L. Lewis today set up some direction signs for the future of labor, but failed to disclose his own destination.

Philadelphia, Jan. 30.—(P)—Approximately 5,000 CIO employees of the Philadelphia Transportation Company—all day-shift workers—have unanimously approved a strike Feb. 11 to enforce demands for a $2-a-day wage increase, union officials reported. (Turn to Page Seven)

Further Efforts Made to Effect Settlement of Two Major Disputes

Hopkins Dead

Less than a year after the loss of his beloved child, death claimed Harry Hopkins, personal friend and adviser to the late President Roosevelt. Hopkins, pictured above in 1945, died in New York after an illness caused by what doctors called an "obscure" ailment. Symbolic of the friendship between Hopkins and Roosevelt is the picture at right. Hopkins resigned his White House job last July to rest, but soon returned as special adviser to President Truman.

Officer Says His Warning Turned Down

Washington, Jan. 30.—(P)—Navy Capt. A. H. McCollum said today that two or three days before Pearl Harbor he drafted a proposed warning to fleet commanders that hostilities with Japan were imminent, but his superiors decided against sending it.

At the time, McCollum was head of the Far Eastern Section of the navy department's intelligence division.

He said his draft was based on his analysis of the situation and was not due to any Japanese "winds" code message indicating a break with the United States. To his knowledge, McCollum added, so such "winds" message was intercepted by the navy.

McCollum related to the senate-house committee investigating Japan's Dec. 7, 1941, attack that he had not known about the navy's Nov. 27 warning message to fleet commanders at the time he drafted his proposed dispatch.

The Nov. 27 message was signed by Admiral Harold R. Stark, chief of naval operations, and opened by saying it was a "war warning."

McCollum gave the committee this account of his proposed message:

He drew it up on Wednesday or Thursday before Japan's Sunday attack and took it to Admiral Thomas S. Wilkinson, director of naval intelligence and his immediate superior.

Wilkinson told him to take it to Admiral R. K. Turner, head of the War Plans Division.

CLEARFIELD COUNTY CROSSING FATALITY

Punxsutawney, Jan. 30.—(P)—Laban Hollen, 71-year-old dairy farmer of Burnside, Clearfield county, was killed and Mrs. H. C. Wright of Mahaffey was injured in a truck-train collision yesterday.

A Pennsylvania locomotive crashed into the truck in which they were riding at a crossing a mile west of McEes, near here.

Mrs. Wright was taken to Clearfield hospital with a possible leg fracture.

Bilbo Is Set For Filibuster Premiere

Washington, Jan. 30.—(P)—Senator Theodore G. Bilbo billed himself for his world premiere matinee filibuster against the FEPC bill today.

Some of his southern colleagues were a little disappointed—they had hoped to save him as a night attraction.

It was all one to the man. He can begin at high noon and talk right through to morning chore time as easy as eating grits and spotted gravy.

There was only one chance that Bilbo might be displaced temporarily. Senator Russell (D-Ga.) claimed so many southerners want to speak against the bill to establish a permanent Fair Employment Practice Commission that it may be necessary to draw lots for the privilege.

Bilbo, a Mississippi Democrat, still proposes to talk 30 days against the bill, but he's going to give his address in installments like a movie serial.

"Look where that got Pearl White," he told a reporter.

Unusual Accident Takes Life Of Employee of Rouse Hospital

One of the most unusual accidents to occur in the county in some months resulted in the death Tuesday afternoon about four o'clock of Percy Wilcox, 70, at the Rouse Hospital at Youngsville, where he was employed as a farm assistant.

The body of Mr. Wilcox was found sitting on a pail at the south end of the runway in the barn housing the pigs shortly after four o'clock by Leonard H. Homer, another employee, who had been summoned by an inmate, Oscar Anderson, who had been working with Wilcox. According to information given Coroner Ed Lowrey, Anderson reported to Homer that something had happened to Wilcox. When Mr. Homer arrived at the scene he found the body of the man and was of the opinion that he had succumbed to a heart attack. Superintendent Stanley Lawrence was summoned and when they attempted to move the body from the building to the residence they found blood dripping from the left leg.

After the arrival of the coroner, an examination by a Youngsville physician at the Young funeral home revealed a deep gash about two inches long in the fleshy part of the left leg about four inches below the knee. A sharp object, which Mr. Wilcox apparently rubbed against, had penetrated a rubber boot, overalls, heavy trousers and underwear before it entered the flesh with force enough to sever an artery, nerves and muscles to a depth of about an inch and a half. It was apparent that the injured man bled to death within a short time. The knee-high rubber boot was filled with blood, and there was a small pool underneath his leg where he had sat on the pail.

The patient, Mr. Anderson, was unable to inform officials as to just what occurred, other than the fact that "something happened to Percy." The theory of officials is that Mr. Wilcox, while working about the barn, scraped his leg against some sharp object with force enough to cut through the boot, clothing and into the flesh. A close inspection is being made today by Commissioners P. C. Ostergard and George Seavy, Superintendent Laurence and other officials in an endeavor to discover just what caused the injury to Mr. Wilcox.

The victim of the tragedy had worked at the hospital for about four years and was considered one of the most capable employees on the farm. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Annabelle Key. (Turn to Page Seven)

Approve Legal Ban Over Atomic Data

Washington, Jan. 30.—(P)—The house naval committee today approved a legal ban against disclosure to foreign governments of technical data obtained in the planned Pacific ocean atom bomb tests.

The proviso written by the navy department and approved intact by the committee, however, includes a clause giving the secretaries of war and navy some leeway in disclosing data to foreign governments.

The secrecy requirement was included in a bill authorizing the navy to use approximately 100 American and captured enemy warships in the Pacific tests beginning next May, but requiring "consent" of the congressional naval committees to be obtained for the selected vessels.

Vice Adm. W. H. P. Blandy, in charge of the forthcoming tests, told the committee he expected a directive from the joint chiefs of staff imposing strict security regulations.

The joint chiefs of staff have put Blandy in charge of the tests scheduled to start next May off Bikini atoll in the Marshall Islands.

SLASHING BUDGET

Pittsburgh, Jan. 30.—(P)—Allegheny county commissioners in the last two days have lopped $360,376 off their budget estimate of $22,058,000, attempting to make a cut of $1,000,000 necessary to avoid an increase in the tax millage.

Successful Conclusion of the Hospital Drive Is Discussed

The board of strategy of the Warren General Hospital Campaign met yesterday and did some close figuring as to the subscription necessary to bring the campaign to a successful conclusion.

Carefully going over the prospects in each division and using these contributions already received as a yardstick, it appears that the campaign can go over. But, and it is a big but, it depends on the energy and persistence of every worker. Each must carry on right up to the dead-line and see every prospect on their list. And they must be received by their fellow-citizens with a real appreciation of what the hospital means to them, their families, and the community.

Ninety-four thousand dollars must be realized by Thursday evening and those in charge are confident of the outcome.

Warren is far below in hospital.

NEGOTIATIONS RESUMED IN G.M. WALKOUT

Top Officials of Corporation and Union Leaders Continue Attempt to Reach Settlement

1,390,000 ARE IDLE

BULLETIN

Detroit, Jan. 30.—(P)—cluding conferences at noon with management and labor leaders in the General Motors building, top officials of the corporation and UAW-CIO leaders were scheduled to participate, along with the entire union negotiating committee.

By the Associated Press
Further efforts were made today to effect settlement of two of the country's major labor disputes—strikes in the steel and automotive industries—as a new and far-reaching strike control bill gained widespread support in congress.

In Detroit, the government was ready to renew its attempt to end the 71-day strike of 175,000 CIO employees in General Motors plants. Top officials of the corporation and the CIO United Auto Workers Union were scheduled to resume wage negotiations after James F. Deway, special federal mediator, had met separately with the principals.

In Washington, the government reportedly had given its last word to the steel industry on what price increases it will approve in the interests of ending the walkout of nearly 750,000 CIO steelworkers.

An advance of approximately $4 per ton has been reported to be the maximum the administration will approve but the U. S. Steel Corp. has said a boost of much more would be necessary even to approximate its workers' demand for wage increases. The CIO United Steelworkers has accepted President Truman's recommendation of an 18 1/2 cents an hour wage hike, while the U. S. Steel's top offer is a pay boost of 15 cents an hour.

As the effects of the 10-day old steel strike continued to further curtail operations in allied industries, the action in the national house of representatives was a bit offered as a substitute for fact-finding legislation. The rules committee scheduled a meeting to pave the way for house debate beginning tomorrow.

As the country's industrial trouble continued to keep idle some 1,390,000 persons, proposals by midwest farm groups for a nationwide farmers' strike met (Turn to Page Seven)

Rep. Luce Will Not Run For Re-Election

Washington, Jan. 30.—(P)—Representative Clare Boothe Luce (R-Conn.) announced today she would not be a candidate for re-election to the house next fall.

There has been considerable speculation here and in Connecticut that she would be a candidate for the U. S. senate this year, but she did not state her future plans.

In a brief announcement Mrs. Luce, wife of Henry R. Luce, publisher of Life, Time and Fortune magazines, said "my good and sufficient reasons for this decision (not to seek re-election to the house) will become abundantly clear in time."

Mrs. Luce was elected in 1943 from the fourth congressional district of Connecticut.

Johnson Buys Tourist Camp In California

Word has been received here that Mr. and Mrs. Allen E. Johnson, former owners of Riverside Camp at Starbuck, have purchased the Knotty Pine Court at Redding, Calif., and will make their home there soon.

They have resided at Riverside, Calif., for the past year, but after a trip to the northern part of the state, where they write that "fishing and hunting are so good and there is the added beauty of hills and dams and canyons", they have decided to make that region their permanent home.

Mrs. Johnson writes that from their front porch they can see Mt. Lassen, with its snow top all year, and from the back porch they view Mt. Shasta. They are just a few miles from the big Shasta dam, which has been well stocked for fishing of all sorts, and which has backed water far up into the valley, providing 420 miles of shore fishing and boating. Just below them about two miles is the Sacramento river, which is especially good for salmon and trout fishing.

Mr. Johnson, who left Pennsylvania because of poor health, is much improved, feeling that the climate has been ideal for his sinus condition in the past year, with very little rain and plenty of sunshine.

The Johnsons will be glad to hear from old friends back east and after February 13 their new address will be Knotty Pine Court, Buckeye Route, Redding, Calif.

Officers Get Stolen Tools At Jamestown

Deputy Sheriff Sanford Secor and State Police Officer Irwin this week recovered a cutting torch outfit at Jamestown where it had been sold by John Henry Montague, 41, Warren RD 3. The outfit is valued at $120 and had been sold for the sum of $15.

A report was received by the officers from the Warren Tank Car Company of the theft of a cutting torch outfit from their plant at Starbuck. Investigation by the officers resulted in the arrest of Montague and after some questioning he admitted selling the outfit at Jamestown. The officers drove to that city and picked up the torch.

Montague was arraigned yesterday afternoon before Justice of the Peace Frank Greenlund where he entered a plea of "guilty" to a charge of burglary and larceny. As the offense is not bailable before a Justice of the Peace Montague was held for action at the next term of criminal court.

Tomorrow Is Last Day For Clothing Drive In the Schools

Are there clothes still hanging in your closet or tucked away in the attic that you do not really need? Time is running out for over 100 million people who have only the clothes they wear on their backs, the same many have worn for the last five years. And time is running out in the county clothing drive.

Tomorrow is the last day of the Victory clothing drive in the schools. Contributions must be brought in tomorrow morning if they are to get on their way to help the overseas destitute.

Church women of Warren are asked to see that their contributions are taken to the First Baptist church tomorrow or Friday for the Interdenominational Mission Study Group's collection. Some individual church collections have already been picked up. Master's have been out today collecting much needed cartons for the rapidly accumulating clothing.

Any stores with empty cartons available are asked to call 1513 and they will be picked up. Collection centers at 440 Pennsylvania avenue, west, the fire stations, the post office, the court house and the Metzger-Wright Company will be open through Saturday for contributions. The community party collection will be made on Saturday night.

Remember to wrap clothing if possible. Do not wrap shoes, rubbers and galoshes. Fit them toe to heel and tie them. Underwear is desperately needed. Socks are spreading like a plague among people who haven't a change of underwear, little soap or ointment. Remember, too, that the war sufferers need protection from sun and rain as well as the cold. Everything is needed by most of Europe and much of Asia, left prostrate by World War II.

When the two local fire trucks arrived in Garland, they found the fire under control by a vigorous bucket brigade of local Garland men. Small fire extinguishers were also used to good purpose by the Garland men.

The Youngsville fire company laid a booster line to get water into the partition and under the roof. The damage by fire and water was not very great owing to quick action by all concerned.

MRS. WATSON DEAD
Word has been received of the death of Mrs. George Walton, a sister of the late C. Ray Negus, former local resident. Mrs. Walton died on Monday Jan. 21st at Daytona Beach, Florida. Funeral services were held there Wednesday Jan. 23rd.

Mrs. Walton who is very well known to many in Youngsville and vicinity was cremated and her ashes will be brought next spring to Busti, her former home, and placed in the family plot of the Busti cemetery.

Chief Johnson is gratified with the response to date but more money is needed and he and the entire fire company would like to see the funds come in as a free will donation, without pressure solicitation. No one knows how soon or how often accidents will occur where such a machine is needed.

FIRE COMPANY CALLED

A quick run was made Tuesday evening to Garland by the Youngsville Company where the Jordan house across the street from Johnson Brothers Store was on fire. It is now occupied by the VanGuilder family.

The cause of the fire is not positively known but was probably from defective wiring, as it seems to have started in the partitions of the one story cell going to the roof and then following up to the roof of the two story part of the house.

When the two local fire trucks arrived in Garland, they found the fire under control by a vigorous bucket brigade of local Garland men. Small fire extinguishers were also used to good purpose by the Garland men.

The Youngsville fire company laid a booster line to get water into the partition and under the roof. The damage by fire and water was not very great owing to quick action by all concerned.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Kidneys may need help the same as how else do you drug your Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Chief Johnson is gratified with the response to date but more money is needed and he and the entire fire company would like to see the funds come in as a free will donation, without pressure solicitation. No one knows how soon or how often accidents will occur where such a machine is needed.

If you have excess acids in your blood, your 15 miles of kidney tubes may be overworked. These tiny filters and tubes are working day and night to help Nature rid your system of excess acids and poisonous waste. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause aching backache, rheumatism, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Punxsy Groundhog To Perform On Saturday
Punxsutawney, Jan. 30.—(P) Next Saturday, February 2, the world-famous Punxsutawney groundhog will make his annual weather prediction.
Atomic bomb control, strikes, inadequate housing, shortages in shipping, suits, shirts, shorts and socks, cotton prices, the tire problem, the Nuernberg trials, Communism—all will be forgotten as a breathless world awaits news from Gobbler's Knob as to the state of the weather for the succeeding six weeks.
The old Scotch couplet has it that "if on February 2 the sun doth appear there'll be two winters within the year". But the modern and universally accepted version is: "When the Punxsy groundhog his shadow sees, the whole bloom-in' world will start to sneeze, freeze, wheeze, etc.," or something like that.
Anyway, the Punxsutawney Groundhog Club will be out in force on Gobbler's Knob next Saturday morning to get the dope on the weather for all of February and half of March.

We will close Thursday at 12 o'clock for the rest of the day to take inventory

Chicken Pox Leads Diseases Here In 1945

Report of the Warren Borough Board of health shows that chicken pox led all communicable diseases in 1945. Of the 308 cases of communicable diseases reported to the Board there were 240 cases of chicken pox. Whooping cough came next on the list with 34 cases; six cases of mumps were reported; one of measles, 12 of German measles, 13 of scarlet fever and one of poliomyelitis.

In addition to placing the above under quarantine the Health Officer investigated 12 reported contagious cases and it was found that none of them were suffering from diseases as reported.

During the year there were many inspections made by the Board of Health and public eating houses and drinking places were inspected to the number of 163 of which 75 were reinspected after warnings had been given on the first inspection. Eighty-one grocery stores were inspected and three of these were reinspected. Dairies also came in for attention and 137 were inspected and 22 were reinspected.

It was a decidedly busy year for the Health Officer and called for the travelling of many miles to cover the territory.

MARCH OF DIMES BROADAST TONIGHT

New York, Jan. 30—(P)—Five networks will present programs tonight, marking the climax of the annual March of Dimes campaign for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. The broadcasts, also commemorate the birthday of Franklin D. Roosevelt, carrying on, too, tradition he set 13 years ago.

Fine Speaker Is Secured For Club Banquet

Approximately 200 persons are expected to attend the annual banquet of the North Warren Civic Club on Wednesday evening, February 6, and those who have not yet secured their dinner tickets should do so at once by contacting Jack Redcliffe.

O. E. Loper, in charge of securing the guest speaker, has engaged Captain Norman Rawson, an internationally known and much sought after speaker and lecturer constantly in demand for the largest conventions and national and international gatherings in the United States and Canada.

He is frequently mentioned in press dispatches and widely quoted in the public press. He has traveled widely and has an unusual flair for analyzing and making clear the international scene and great public issues. He is also noted for a very happy combination of up to the minute information, lucid explanation, wholesome and sparkling wit.

A recent press dispatch concerning him says: "Captain Rawson's address will long be remembered for its clarity, courage and humor." Another reads: "He held his audience literally spellbound from the opening sentence to his final word."

This will be his second appearance in Warren, his first visit having been as speaker for a meeting of Purchasing Agents Association of Northwestern Pennsylvania at the Hotel Carver in February, 1944.

Enchanted Journey
By Helen R. Woodward

Chapter 28
Laura and Chris met Edith's train when she got back to New York. Laura and Edith clung together, laughing and crying in each other's arms.

"Hey, I'm here, too!" Chris cried, pulling Edith's sleeve. "The forgotten man! Remember me?"

"Oh, Chris, darling—hello! How wonderful you look!"

"I can't say the same for you!" Chris was thinking, his eyes flying to Laura's face to see if she noticed the change in her daughter. "She looks like she's been through a war—contact with Whit Lacey inevitably does that to people!"

At the apartment Edith put her arms about Dabney and hugged her warmly. "It's so good to have you home, Miss Edith. And you liked Kentucky, of course."

"It's lovely, Dabney. But I'm glad to get home."

"You must tell us all about Rosalands, when you've gotten rested," Dabney cried, eager for word of her old home.

"Yes, I must, mustn't I?" was Edith's vague reply.

The three of them dined quietly. Laura and Chris kept up a running fire of conversation—bringing you up to date," as Chris said. Edith was content to nod and smile when necessary, hoping they would not guess the agony of her aching heart.

She could not be completely angry with Whit—they had parted friends—but she knew that never again could they regain that father-daughter relationship each had tried so hard to foster. He had been so utterly remorseful, so completely chastened and beaten. Would he be a different man now? She kept remembering him, holding the small son that was all that was left of Barbara, in his arms. He had not wanted to be parted from the child for a moment. The nurse had to become quite angry with him to make him release the little fellow.

OLD BOAT PAID
The annual meeting of the Jamestown group which operates the steamer, City of Jamestown, received reports showing that total revenue received by the last remaining big steamer on Chautauque Lake during last season was $11,067, including aid from the city of Jamestown, and board of utilities and other organizations. Total operating expenses were $4,836.50 but because of the heavy cost of the repairs made last Spring to the steel hull and considerable work needed on the upper structure of the boat this year, a possible total debt of $8,000 is seen for this year.

UNUSUAL PLAY WINS IN UNUSUAL HAND
By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority

Here is a combination of cards I met in a rather peculiar fashion in Memphis, Tenn. South was playing the duplicate contract at two spades, the bidding having gone one spade by South, two spades by North, pass, pass, pass.

You can see that declarer's only hope with this combination is to lead over to the king, play a small spade back and finesse the jack. If East holds the queen, declarer can pick up the suit.

However, in Memphis a very elderly gentleman played these cards against me, and he led the jack of spades. I made the mistake of covering with the queen. Why was this a mistake? Because ordinarily no player will lead the jack unless he holds the jack-ten, and if the jack is not covered, he will go

THE TRIAL OF MR. MADDY

Dr. Joseph Maddy called the turn correctly when he said he was going to be kicked out of James C. Petrillo's American Federation of Musicians, of which he had been a member for 37 years. He didn't have to be clairvoyant to see it coming. For he offended Mr. Petrillo some three years ago by balking the latter's sweeping authority and almost getting away with it. Few people, in or out of the AFM, balk Mr. Petrillo these days.

So the AFM executive board gave Dr. Maddy the old heave-ho the other day. The doctor's crime? Teaching music at his National Music Camp in Interlochen, Mich., after Mr. Petrillo had put it on the union's unfair list.

And why was the camp on the unfair list? Well, that's not so simple. The AFM never put a teaching institution off limits before. It hasn't since. Music schools or music teachers aren't unionized. The AFM isn't concerned with teachers but with performers, including those virtuosos who turn the platters for recorded broadcasts.

Anyway, Dr. Maddy is out of the union, after a "trial" in which he charges he was not allowed to offer any argument or evidence. Mr. Petrillo apparently has had his revenge. But Dr. Maddy still has his music camp and his position on the University of Michigan faculty, at least for the moment.

We hope he keeps them—but with Mr. Petrillo, you never can tell.

CAUSE OF COMMON COLD

What causes the common cold? The medical profession blushing admits it doesn't know.

Most doctors say it is a "filtrable virus"—then prescribe two dozen clean handkerchiefs.

Dr. B. Seymour-Jones, British ear, nose and throat specialist, has no new remedy to suggest, but he has a hunch about the cause of colds.

It's protein—spores, released into the air by the leaves, grasses and other vegetation decaying at summer's end, he thinks.

Run-down humans are allergic to the spores. When they inhale them—presto, a cold. Naturally, he says, most colds occur from fall to mid-winter and again when the snow thaws in spring. Naturally, also, Eskimos have fewer colds than other peoples.

You can "catch" a cold in the woods cut off from other humans for months, says Dr. Seymour-Jones. He thinks earthworms may harbor and spread the protein spores.

HAD THAT CAR INSPECTED?

Lot of motorists around these parts have not taken the trouble to have their gas buggies inspected during the period which ends tomorrow night. They should not have to be reminded that they will very likely find themselves in difficulty if they attempt to drive Friday without the new sticker. Severe weather conditions are cited as an additional reason why motor vehicle inspection should be made. R. B. Maxwell, secretary of the Pennsylvania Motor Federation—AAA, reminds "it will still be some time before the average motorist will be able to purchase a new car, and the best policy is to give your present car the best care possible."

BETTER KEEP THAT CARD

Better keep carrying that selective service registration card, brother. The middle of May is the earliest possible date for discontinuance of the draft law. And meanwhile, the F. B. I.'s Mr. Edgar Hoover warns us it would be a mighty good thing, whether we be aged 18 or aged 65, to keep the cards stuffed in our wallets. The FBI currently is on the outlook for 13,697 draft evaders: "would be downright embarrassing now, says Mr. Hoover, when you couldn't produce your card if one of my agents happened to stop you and ask for your 'credentials.'"

Now someone discovers that there is no such thing as the United Nations Organization. The San Francisco Charter says just "United Nations." No one seems to know who tacked on the generally accepted Organization. But there is a slight effort afoot to change the designation from UNO to UN. We confess an allergy to the current and inevitable alphabetical designation of practically everything. But if we must choose, we'll take UNO in preference to UN. Certainly the Spanish word for one is a more appropriate symbol for the United Nations' goal than the Anglo-Saxon prefix of negation.

MACKENZIE'S Column

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

AP World Traveler

Madrid, Jan. 30—There are several conclusions which I have reached regarding chief of state Franco, both from general observations and from my unusual interview with him at the Pardo Palace, and they are these:

He knows the goal for which he is headed. He believes that he is on the right road for the good of Spain. (Indeed I've heard it said that he feels he was predestined to lead the nation) he is a man of granite convictions from which it is difficult to move him.

Now those are points which we must understand in order to arrive at a correct appraisal of El Caudillo's actions. Of course, the United States and other countries have taken bitter exceptions to many of the policies he has pursued. There was the Potsdam declaration which decreed that the Franco regime rendered Spain unsuitable to participate in the United Nations organization. And I had the temerity to tell him during our interview:

"The people of the United States have fought a great war against Nazism and Fascism. Thousands of our boys have died for this cause. Rightly or wrongly the American public feels that Spain was in effect an ally of Germany and Italy, and finds it hard to forgive that."

As I reported in yesterday's column, the generalissimo declared categorically that he neither subscribed to nor supported Nazi and Fascist policies or political views. Well, naturally, that leaves a lot unanswered, but I have a strong feeling that he is very desirous of reestablishing good relations with the United States and Britain.

There is small doubt, as I see it, that Spain is orienting its policy toward the United States and England. I told Generalissimo Franco the impression prevailed abroad that this was so, and asked for his comment. His reply, while couched in cautious terms which might be described as indirect lighting, would seem to confirm that idea. This is the way he put it:

"Neither during the Spanish national movement (civil war of 1936-39) nor after it did the Spanish government cease taking care of its relations with the United States and Great Britain, and even in those moments of the war

Things You've Outgrown

A wide-eyed Dutch girl is shown here as she hugs the warm woolen sweater contributed in last spring's Clothing Collection. Movie people and writers all over the country are adding their appeals for the Victory Clothing Collection now under way and Frank Sinatra, youth favorite, calls upon every American school student to make this resolution: To completely outfit some boy or girl of foreign lands who lost everything in helping to win the war. He writes: American school students are "the kids with the sleds." You know, a kid with a sled can be the most liked or disliked in the neighborhood. It all depends on whether he shares his fun with the others, or selfishly hides his treasure away from those less fortunate. To the thin, ragged children overseas, who survived the terrible war, but, in many cases, saw their families killed and their homes burned to the ground, Americans are "the kids with the sleds." Not that it is sleds these war victims want. It's faded sweaters you have discarded, shoes which are too small, socks you have replaced, anything you have outgrown. If a girl fell and broke her arm, you'd stop everything and run for help; if a buddy were sick in bed, you'd certainly send him books and write him a get-well letter; if a neighbor's house burned down, of course you would offer to share your home and warm clothing—well, the misfortunes which have come to your friends overseas is a thousand times worse than anything that could happen in America. We know what you students can do when you go all-out on a project—you proved it by the job you did last April in the Clothing Collection—but that is not enough. There are still millions of boys and girls whose some feet are wrapped in paper because they have no shoes—they are clad in rags because they have no clothes—they sleep on straw because bedding that the enemy didn't steal was long ago made into crude garments—when you have clothing you don't need—can you fall to meet this need? Take every article you can spare to your school's Victory Clothing Collection.

DRAGONS WIN FROM FRANKLIN; MOVE INTO 1ST PLACE

Eaton Paces Massamen to 14th Win In 15 Starts; Locals In Tie With Oilers, Franklinites

Warren's basketballing Dragons turned full swing into the District Ten, Section Two, title race last night by virtue of a 36-22 victory over the Franklin Nursery here on the Beauty hardwood.

The victory sends the Section Two into a three-way tie between Warren, Franklin, and Oil City. The Oilers, copping a 38-34 win from Titusville last night, Titusville is in second with one win and three losses, and Meadville is in third with no wins and four losses.

In a rough-and-tumble contest, the Massamen spent the opening minutes warming up and then went into the thick of the battle to record a 9-5 lead at the first quarter mark.

Jack Eaton, the locals' giant center, sparked the Dragon attack with 13 points, while Al Babcock and Dick Harris each accounted for eight. Jim Scallie, replacing Neil Simmons, did a very commendable job and Ray Reed turned in his usual fine defensive performance and play-making task.

The second quarter saw the Dragons boom away to a 20-8 lead which Franklin never came close to. Stephanides and Phillips were the high scorers for the Nursery quarter.

In the second half, the teams were on fairly even terms. At the end of the third, Warren still held a commanding, 30-18 lead, Eaton

Seconds Down Franklin J-V Quint, 31-24

Sig Decker and Phil Colosimo paced their Warren High Seconds to a 31-24 win over the Franklin Varsity last night in a game preceding the Warren-Franklin varsity clash.

The fans were treated to one of the top second team tilts of the season, and the locals maintained their perfect record against out-of-town teams. The Warren outfit clicked on its foul attempts to sew up the contest in the fourth after the Franklinites had slashed a 15-9 halftime lead. Lineups:

Toronto Ice Star Banned For Gambling

Montreal, Jan. 30.—(P)—The hockey career of towering Walter (Babe) Pratt, one of the greatest defencemen of the last decade, appeared to be ended today unless the National League Hockey League appeal board overrules the expulsion order of League President Mervyn (Red) Dutton.

In a drastic move that shook the hockey world yesterday, Dutton expelled the famed star of the Toronto Maple Leafs from organized hockey for "violating the rules against gambling."

Declaring that "the good name of professional hockey can't be jeopardized to protect one player," the czar of the big league ice sport said that he had taken the action only after Pratt had "ignored warnings against wagering."

One of the former greats of the game himself, the red-haired Dutton said that the 30-year-old, 212-pound star of 11 major league hockey campaigns had been suspected for some time of breaking the N. H. L. rule which forbids players to bet on the outcome of league games even if the team to which they belong are not involved.

"I want to emphasize the fact," Dutton said, "that there is no scandal in connection with this case. Pratt is being disciplined for violating rules against gambling, but, in fairness to the Toronto player, it should be kept in mind there is no evidence he was betting against his own team."

In his Toronto home, Pratt declined to comment on the expulsion but said he would seek a hearing of his case by the governors at the earliest opportunity. The governors are scheduled to meet in New York Feb. 15.

SOCIETY NEWS

Thousand Articles Committee Goal For Youth Party

The February community party is really going to town for Saturday's recreation night at Beatty school. The party promises to be tops but it's the "Have a Heart and Help" idea which seems right on the beam with the teens and twenties.

The fun is on the surface but the earnestness and enthusiasm of the young people promises to pile up the overseas garments to their 1,000 goal. They are really putting some meaning into a Valentine party, with their help for the European and Asiatic youth.

Georgia Spinney and Charles Cochener, co-chairmen for the month, have announced their sub-chairmen for Saturday night. Pat Wade and Betty Lou Hook have been handed a decorating theme that promises original treatment.

Rita Scrivano, Eveline Peterson and Jean Crossett will handle the refreshments bar with their usual efficiency. Elizabeth Bathurst and Adelle Erickson will see that wraps are taken care of and Betty Lauffenburger and Mary Alice Fisher will be on hand again to attend to the game rooms.

The necessary set-up will be headed by Ray Reed, and Louie Lowe and Don White are all set to break cleanup records. Bob Songer will see that these signs to keep things straight and Ruth Croak will give beginning dancers an opportunity to learn basic or tricky steps in the dance instruction room.

B. J. Kolpien and Skeats Latshaw will have a double responsibility, heading the door committee this week, providing cartons for the clothes, and committee members to "hand out the hearts".

All chairmen are asked to have the names of their committees ready for Mrs. Huff, community party supervisor this evening. Volunteers may call either co-chairman.

The Committee on Community Recreation has secured Dale Soderburg's Orchestra for this week's party and Bill Dobbs' Orchestra for the party following the basketball game on Friday, February 15th.

EASTERN STAR PARTY SUCCESSFUL

The party held last evening in Masonic Temple for Eastern Star and Masonic members, with their escorts and ladies, proved successful beyond the anticipations of the committee.

Arrangements for dancing were in charge of Ruth McNulty, Verna Fox and Genevieve Wood, with Hazel Andrews and Mary Overturn directing the cards and other games downstairs. At the conclusion of the evening, refreshments were served by Lillian McKinley and Agnes Mong.

Foster of Oil City were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kelley.

At the last meeting of the Lady Pine Grove Rebekah Lodge a committee composed of Mrs. Effie Springer, Mrs. Ethel Mattison, Mrs. Belle Ruland, Miss Rachel Springer, Mrs. Mabel Phillips was appointed to make arrangements for celebration of the 25th anniversary which takes place March 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Wiltse of Russell, Miss Mildred Wiltse of North Towanda attended the funeral services of Joe Hillier at Randolph, N. Y.

EXTENDED FORECAST

Extended forecast for the period Wednesday, Jan. 30 through Sunday, Feb. 3: Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia: Rain Wednesday or Wednesday night, ending early Thursday; colder Thursday and Friday, warmer at end of week with rain or snow likely Saturday or Sunday; temperature averaging near normal.

Suppose You Said,
"Give Me 5c Worth of Electricity!"

Sounds funny, when you put it that way. But a nickel's worth of electricity will run your radio and furnish you with reading light for a whole evening. (Compare that with a 5c candle). It will cook an entire dinner or do the week's laundry. It will supply you with a luxurious bath or make your toast every morning for a week. It's perhaps the biggest "little" purchase you can make.
